WEEKEND COOKING FUN: CAKES & PIZZAS

From birthday cakes to pizzas, we had a great time in the kitchen this weekend. We measured, poured, and mixed to bake two heart-shaped vanilla birthday cakes—one enjoyed for dessert and one for the birthday girl to take home and share. On the savoury side, we rolled out homemade pizza dough, added sauce, toppings, and cheese to create our own mini pizzas. A fun and tasty experience all around!

BRICKS, BRUSHES & BAKING BLISS

Saturday morning was filled with building Lego and Magnetix creations, painting with paint pens, and baking birthday cakes and fresh bread for lunch. In the afternoon, we visited Pinot & Picasso at Redcliffe for a special kid-friendly paint and sip session, enjoying sparkling apple juice, pizza wheels, and chocolate slice as we painted. We ended the day happily chatting about our creative adventures.

FARMYARD FUN & TRACTOR ADVENTURES

On Sunday, we visited a favourite RWL destination, White Ridge Farm. We fed and petted the animals, admired the birds, and took in the sights on a tractor ride and trackless train tour. It was great to share the farm experience with those visiting for the first time. The tractor ride was a highlight, especially spotting fun features like the Fruit Salad Tree. We also took a break to enjoy morning tea, making for a wonderful day out.
