WE LOVE BIRTHDAYS!

We will always take advantage of an excuse to make a birthday cake! One of our special friends celebrated her birthday this weekend so we whipped up our favourite vanilla cake recipe, topped with cream cheese icing and sprinkles, of course!

HORSE RIDING

We tried an afternoon session of horse riding at Sandy Creek this weekend, to avoid the heat in the middle of the day and to care for the horses. We packed homemade mini pizzas to have for dinner before the drive back home, and loved exploring the property in the afternoon shade.

FLIP OUT

We understand that it can feel upsetting when plans change suddenly, but this weekend we had to do that after the rain on Sunday morning made our trip to the Historial Village a bit tricky. Luckily, everyone was keen for the alternative of a trip to Flip Out and noone stopped for 2 hours straight! We then enjoyed lunch together before heading back home to wind down for the weekend.

Nearly halfway through term 1...

Is anyone else thinking about school holidays already?! We will have the next quarterly Adventure Blueprint published in the coming weeks but we wanted to give everyone a heads up that for the Easter respite weekend, we will be opening from the Thursday to Saturday (17th-19th April) again this year so everyone can enjoy Easter Sunday with their families.
